

3rd Annual Emmaus Handbell Workshop

"Read before Ringing", Techniques, & Sight-Reading for 2 - 3 octave choirs

Avoid issues by learning how to READ & MARK music before ringing it. Review handbell techniques and participate in drills for all. Then sight-read music using techniques, try old favorites and new releases!

Have fun connecting with other handbell enthusiasts in the area.

All workshop music and materials provided.

No need for advance music purchases or rehearsals

Event Clinician: Scott Beck

Scott Beck currently is Vice President and one of the Directors of the Magic of Bronze community handbell ensemble in Orlando and a popular teacher at the 10th Florida Festival (February 2018). Scott graduated from Western Michigan University Magna Cum Laude with a BM in Music Education and moved to Florida in January 2014. While in Michigan, he rang with the Capital City Ringers in Lansing and was the Student Conductor for one semester. Scott is starting his 4th year teaching for the Orange County Public Schools. Besides teaching music to over 700 students, he also leads two after-school ensembles, a 4th/5th grade chorus and a 5th grade hand chimes choir. He currently resides in Orlando with his cat, Kaz. When not buried in music, he enjoys going to the theme parks with his Partner, Michael and cleaning up his never ending DVR list of television shows.
